ABC POL SCI is a guide to current periodical literature (foreign and domestic) which serves the fields of political science and government. Serial publications in related disciplines such as law, sociology, and cultural anthropology are also included. The Table of Contents pages from about 300 journals currently appear in ABC POL SCI. Most of the participating journal editors provide page or galley proofs of their contents pages in advance of their own publication dates. The editors of ABC POL SCI delete references to necrologies, letters to the editor, book reviews, unsigned notes, anecdotes, fiction, poetry, and similar material prior to publication.
